

SPRING TRAIL

The trail starts at the village of Prevala on 1515m altitude and 45min drive from the city of Prizren while the final destination is at the top of Sharri Mountain Bistro cirque, around 8 km hike and approximately 4 h of hiking. Prevala is known as a small ski centre with three different climates, continental, polar and Mediterranean which can be experienced on the same day. In most of the area there is snow from November until May. The highest peak of the zone is at 2651m and it is surrounded with other peak points with approximately similar altitude. The path of this hiking route goes close to the stream of the river Lumbardh (Bistrica) which flows through mountain valley to Prizren and further to Albania. The first few kilometres of the trail are more physically challenging, while further it gets easier and flatter before it moves on toward the forest and rocky part that takes to the waterfalls. The route provides an opportunity for meeting wild animals like Chamonix -wild goat.
