

THE BIRD WATCHING TRAIL

This trail is not for the long and high trip, but it is more a destination for the nature lovers like bird observation and short distance hikers. The altitude of the starting point is 1400. The trail starts from the forest, and the elevation continuously decreases until the finishing point. Mid stage of the trail is open view and the best meadows of the area are flowers aromatized during the spring. By having light hike, you may see different colors of the flowers and butterflies among the birds along the trail. The last part of this short but beautiful and diverse trail ends up at the local park with black pine trees ending at the center of the village near the mosque Mehmet Kukliu . On the way, the visitors can see perfect flora and fauna including birds and roe deer. The bird watching is best during the spring and summer when the bird activities are very more present at the area.
